

Frost Young Women Conductors' Symposium

Virtual Clinics and Web Series

Keynote Speaker: Maestra JoAnn Falletta
Photo by Ann M. Peterson

Virtual Clinics Weekend - September 19 & 20, 2020

Movement for Conductors: From the Ground Up	Dr. Emily Threinen, University of Minnesota
Wind Band/Ensemble Concert Programming: You Are What You Program	Dr. Emily Threinen
Authentic Leadership for the Conductor	Dr. Amanda Quist, Frost School of Music
Movement for Conductors: A Practice Routine	Dr. Emily Threinen
Building the Choir: Sound and Spirit	Dr. Amanda Quist
Staying Motivated and Productive During a Pandemic / Stress, Coping, Mental Health	Dr. Threinen & Dr. Quist
Everything You Wanted to Know About Podium Leadership but Were Afraid to Ask!	Dr. Carolyn Watson, University of Kansas Alice Farnham, Royal Philharmonic Society
Score Study: Score Diversity and Preparation	Dr. Emily Threinen
Choosing Repertoire for Success	Dr. Amanda Quist
Women Supporting Women	Dr. Amanda Quist & Dr. Emily Threinen

Web Series - September 22 - October 14, 2020

Thursday, September 24th 8:00pm EST Still I Rise: Empowering Women Through Song	Dr. Meredith Bowen, Radford University
Tuesday, September 29th, 7:00pm EST Embracing Diversity & Creating Inclusive Spaces	Dr. Jobia Keys & Dr. H. A. Nethery Florida Southern College
Monday, October 5th, 8:00pm EST Choral and Orchestra Performance Considerations for 19th Century Music	Dr. Deanna Joseph, Georgia State University
Thursday, October 8th, 8:00pm EST Documenting the Lived Experiences of Woman Conductors	Amy Bovin, Hartt School of Music
Monday, October 12th, 8:00pm EST Salon Chat	Cynthia Johnston-Turner, University of Georgia Alex Shapiro, Composer Jennifer Jolley, Texas Tech University Lindsay Kesselman, Soprano
Wednesday, October 14th, 7:00pm EST The Road Less Traveled – The Journey of Black Women Composers	Brittney E. Boykin, Conductor and Composer